An internationally famous 100ft embroidered tapestry exhibited in Fishguard library depicts the story of the 1797 last ever invasion of mainland Britain. After viewing this fascinating story, head towards Strumble Head and the gallery of Judy Linnell. Her intuitive and spontaneous style produces colourful and atmospheric watercolours. Double back to Goodwick through Manorwen for a collection of over 40 artists' work at Workshop Wales Gallery, as well as garden and outdoor sculpture. At Castlemorris you will find the picturesque Tregwynt Mill, where its cutting edge contemporary design of wool throws and rugs is internationally renowned.

Carry on towards St Davids, just above Whitesands Bay you will pass the workshop of Pembrokeshire's landscape-inspired furniture maker, Grant Sonnex, from lamps to cabinets. Right in the centre of the cathedral city of St Davids is Oriel Y Felin housing the work of artist Pauline Beynon plus a showcase of selected works from invited and local artists. In Nun Street is the creative cwctch of Cheese and Pickles studio, where artist and illustrator Deborah Withey has her eclectic studio.

Stop in to see her work or enjoy a half/full day workshop. In Goat Street, you will find award-winning contemporary glass artist Steve Robinson. Original colourful effects are found in his works from bowls, tiles and splashbacks. Just off the square in City Hall, Creative Fusion brings you an exhibition of original work by artists and craft makers from South-west Wales. Head out of the city towards Solva, you will see Oriol y Parc. This state-of-the-art gallery houses works from the National Museum of Wales and includes works by Graham Sutherland, as well being a visitor centre. Carry on into Solva, then turn up to Middle Mill and The Solva Woollen Mill. The only mill in Wales specialising in flat woven carpets, rugs and runners. Off the main Haverfordwest road, watch out for Hilton Court where you will find Celtic Images Gallery, with its evocative collection of images of Pembrokeshire from various contributors.

Just off the main road towards Haverfordwest, The Old Smithy in Simpson Cross has a diverse range of Welsh gifts mostly from Pembrokeshire artists and craftsmen.

Last Invasion Tapestry Gallery

Fishguard Library,
Pembrokeshire County Council,
Town Hall, Market Square, Fishguard,
Pembrokeshire SA65 9HA
Tel: 01437 776638
Group Bookings: 01437 776122

Description: In 1797, the last ever invasion of mainland Britain took place when a French force landed three miles west of Fishguard. The fascinating story of this event is told on a 100-foot long embroidered tapestry, designed and sewn by 80 local women. It's in a similar format and shape as the Bayeux Tapestry and is now internationally famous.

The Tapestry was commissioned as a permanent legacy of the Invasion Bicentenary in 1997. It took four years to complete and is exhibited in a purpose-built gallery attached to the Library in Fishguard Town Hall. Museum exhibits and an AV room showing films related to the making of the Tapestry are included.

Directions: Situated in the centre of Fishguard in the Town Hall adjacent to the Library.

Opening times: The Last Invasion Tapestry is located at Fishguard Library. There is no charge for entry. Please ring 01437 776638 for opening hours or go to www.pembrokeshirevirtualmuseum.co.uk

Facilities: Disabled parking on site, level access, standard toilet, disabled toilet, guide dogs welcome, merchandise available.

Email: judylinnell@02.co.uk

Description: Visit the artist's studio/gallery at her home near Strumble Head and see a range of colourful, atmospheric watercolours (framed and unframed) - landscapes, seascapes and flower paintings. Judy has a degree in Fine Art and has taught for over thirty years and contributed to a number of books about watercolour. She has exhibited at the Mall Galleries and Bankside in London - also locally and throughout Wales with the Royal Watercolour Society of Wales. Her approach is intuitive and spontaneous, painterly and loose - come and see her work in a relaxed and beautiful setting.

Directions: From Goodwick, follow signs to Strumble Head passing through Stop & Call. Turn left towards St Nicholas and Rhos-y-Caerau. After approximately one mile, turn right down a small lane to Rhos-y-Caerau, taking a left fork and then a sharp left by the postbox and chapel. Proceed to the far end of this lane and the farmhouse is on the left where the bridleway begins. OS Map Ref: SM 918 375. Bus service - Strumble Shuttle (404).

Opening times: Most of the time between 11.00am - 5.00pm. Please telephone 01348 891316 first to avoid disappointment.
