The designated premises supervisor or premises licence holder, or any other person authorised by the premises supervisor or premises licence holder (the nominee), shall ensure they are present on the premises for the duration of licensable activities, and will ensure all are made aware of the conditions or operating schedule of the licence.

The premises licence holder, designated premises supervisor, or the nominee, shall not engage in any activities, which prevents them from supervising the premises

The designated premises supervisor, premises licence holder or the nominee, will ensure that nothing takes place on the premises which constitutes disorder or breach of peace or involves the misuse of drugs, or unlawful gaming and betting.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

CCTV to be installed inside and outside the premises. Images to be kept for a minimum of 31 days and copies made available to the police and licensing upon request.

A bag search will be conducted upon entry by the registered door persons.

Litter bins will be provided in the outside areas.

No glass will be used in the premises, recyclable plastic only.

15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
