Other (Please specify):

I have a number of reasons for my objection , firstly my family have lived in monkton 6 generations and many of which are I turned in monkton cemetery which at its present time is a tranquil peaceful place which I appreciate when visiting my deceased ancestors I'm sure there are many local people who may think the same, Secondly the old conduit / watery lane (bridal way) skirts the proposed site which is sensitive area where i endangered species such as Doormice , Bats, owls, and a variety of small mammals and there's a strong possibility of the being used as a informal source of access to the proposed site and it just so happens that the historical well of Saint Nicholas which once served Pembroke castle is on the southern edge of the proposed site my concerns are that this development would have a detrimental effect on the existing wildlife.
