

New headteacher announced

The first headteacher of the new Voluntary Aided School serving the St David's peninsula has been appointed.

Mr David Haynes, currently the headteacher of Ysgol Dewi Sant, has been appointed to lead the new school following national advertising and a rigorous selection procedure.

The process was conducted by the temporary governing body supported by the Local Authority and Diocese of St Davids.

The appointments committee was unanimous in making its decision and the appointment of Mr Haynes was ratified by the temporary governing body at its meeting on Friday 9th June.

The new school will open in September 2018 with pupils aged three to sixteen.
