

Development Management - Fair Processing Notice

1. Why do we collect and keep your personal information?

Pembrokeshire County Council collect and use your personal information so that we can determine planning applications, administer the appeals process in conjunction with the Planning Inspectorate, respond to statutory and non-statutory pre-application enquiries, permitted development enquiries, respond to screening and scoping opinions and investigate potential enforcement matters.

The Processing of your data is:

- Because we have a legal obligation to do so in line with the:
 - Town and Country Planning Act 1990
 - Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990
 - Planning (Wales) Act 2015
- Because it is necessary for the performance of this task to do so in line with the above Acts.

2. How Information about you is used.

The information that you provide will be processed according to the General Data Protection Regulations 2016, together with the Town and Country Planning Act 1995 (and other Acts listed above). The personal data that you/your agent provides may be used to deal with your application/query. If you are making an objection or representation then your personal data will be used to deal with the application which you are objecting to or making representations about.

We have a duty to protect the public funds we administer and we may cross check the information with Revenue Services, Council Tax, The Valuation Office and Land Registry.

We will also make any disclosures required by law and we may also share this information with other bodies responsible for detecting/preventing fraud or auditing/administering public funds to ensure money is targeted and spent in the most appropriate and cost effective way. Your information could be used for enforcement action, in order to achieve this, information may be shared with other internal departments within Pembrokeshire County Council.

We will not make any disclosures to third parties for marketing purposes. However, please note that under planning legislation, planning application forms must be made available for public inspection as part of the Council's statutory Planning Register of planning applications. Electronic copies of application documents are published to the Council's website at www.pembrokeshire.gov.uk and redacted accordingly. In addition statutory consultee responses are also published to the Authority's website. In respect of written objections and representations from third parties, these are not published on the Council's Website.

Please note that the Council will not publish individual applicant's signatures, telephone numbers, fax numbers or email addresses on the internet although agents contact details will be provided.

Your data will be secure and confidential at all times and we will only collect the personal information that is required to assess your application/query.

3. How long do we keep hold of your information?

We will retain the information provided to us in line with our retention schedule and your information will be securely disposed of once it is no longer required. For further information on our retention schedule please visit the planning page on www.pembrokeshire.gov.uk or contact the Development Management Section.

4. Access to my personal information?

You can find out if we hold any personal information by making a subject access request under the General Data Protection Act Regulations 2016. To make a request for any personal information we may hold you need to put your request in writing addressing it to:

Access to Records Team

Pembrokeshire County Council
County Hall
Haverfordwest
SA61 1TP

5. Your Rights.

Under the General Data Protection Regulations 2016, you have rights as an individual which you can exercise in relation to the information we hold about you:

- The right of access – you are entitled to request access to and a copy of, information we hold about you
- The right to rectification – you have the right to ask to have your information corrected.
- The right to restrict processing may apply – you may request that we stop processing your personal data however, this may delay or prevent us delivering a service to you. We will seek to comply with your request but may be required to hold or process information to comply with our legal duties.
- The right to object – this is not an absolute right and will depend on the reason for processing your personal information.
- The right to not be subject to automated decision-making and profiling

6. Complaints or Queries.

Pembrokeshire County Council endeavours to meet the highest standards when collecting and using personal information. For this reason, we take any complaints we receive about this seriously. We encourage people to bring to our attention if they believe that our collection or use of information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate.

This privacy notice does not provide exhaustive detail of all aspects of our collection and use of personal information. However we are happy to provide any additional information or explanation needed. Any requests for this should be sent to the address below:

Jo Hendy, Data Protection Officer
Pembrokeshire County Council
County Hall
Haverfordwest
SA61 1TP

Email: dataprotection@pembrokeshire.gov.uk

Telephone: 01437 764551

If you want to make a complaint about the way we have processed your personal information, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office as the statutory body which oversees data protection law:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
SK9 5AF

Email case worker@ico.org.uk Telephone No: 0303 123 1113

7. Changes to this privacy notice.

We keep our privacy notice under regular review.