Development Management – Third Party Representations

This privacy notice covers how Pembrokeshire County Council (as a Data Controller) will collect, use and share your personal data for the purposes of determining planning applications, administering the appeals process in conjunction with the Planning Inspectorate and investigating potential enforcement matters as part of the Development Management Service.

Why we need your information (purpose of processing)

We collect and use your personal information so that we can deal with the application which you are objecting to or making representations about. Information may be used within Officer evaluation reports (including committee reports) and subsequently published on-line. Representations received will be held in the Departmental systems but not published to the Authority's website and will be subject to our document retention policy.

Under the Local Government (Access to Information Act) 1985, written objections and representations from third parties can be made available upon request. Copies of representations can be provided in either hard copy or electronic pdf format. Personal information including names, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, signatures and means of identifying the individual(s) will be redacted beforehand.

The information that you provide will be processed according to the General Data Protection Regulation 2016, the Data Protection Act 2018, Town and Country Planning Act 1990, Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 and Planning (Wales) Act 2015.

We will also make any disclosures required by law and we may also share this information with other bodies responsible for detecting/preventing fraud/crime or auditing/administering public funds to ensure money is targeted and spent in the most appropriate and cost effective way. In order to achieve this, information will be shared with our Audit Service within Pembrokeshire County Council and with The Auditor General for Wales.

We will not make any disclosures to third parties for marketing purposes.

Your data will be secure and confidential at all times and we will only collect the personal information that is required to provide you with our service.

What personal data are being collected?

The categories of personal data being collected are:

- names;
- contact details;
- addresses;
- location data.

What is our legal basis for processing your personal data?

The General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) requires specific conditions to be met to ensure that the processing of your personal data is lawful. These relevant conditions are below:

Article 6 (1)(e) Public task: the processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

Who will we share your information with?

We may need to share your personal data with internal departments, other organisations and third parties, this may include:

- Planning Enforcement, Building Control, Legal Department, Committee Services and the Planning Inspectorate.

Pembrokeshire County Council has a duty to protect the public fund it manages. Therefore, the information that you have provided to us may be used for the prevention and detection of fraud and for auditing purposes both internally and externally.

How long do we keep hold of your information?

Pembrokeshire County Council will only keep your information for as long as is necessary, we will retain the information provided to us for 72 months from the date of the decision notice and your information will be securely disposed of once it is no longer required.

Your Rights

Under the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 and Data Protection Act 2018, you have rights as an individual including:

- The right to Rectification – you have the right to ask to have your information corrected.
- The right to Restrict processing may apply – you may request that we stop processing your personal data however, this may delay or prevent us delivering a service to you. We will seek to comply with your request but may be required to hold or process information to comply with our legal duties.
- The right to Object – this is not an absolute right and will depend on the reason for processing your personal information.
- The right of Access – you have the right to ask us for copies of your personal data. To make a request, please contact:
